About Kosova Chamber of Commerce

- Kosovo Chamber of Commerce (KCC) is a professional organization founded in 1962 by the Kosovo Assembly, an institution in service of the Kosovo economy, a constructive partner of the Republic of Kosovo's institutions, a partner in social dialogue, a promoter of economic development and macroeconomic policies.
- Kosovo Chamber of Commerce proudly hosts two premier events each year, showcasing the best of Kosovo's economic landscape. These events, the International General Fair and the Agro-industrial Fair, stand as pillars of economic development, drawing participants from across the globe.
- The International General Fair: represents a dynamic marketplace where businesses converge to exhibit their latest products and services. With a diverse array of exhibitors spanning various industries, this fair serves as a hub for networking, collaboration, and forging strategic partnerships. Investors, entrepreneurs, and industry leaders alike flock to this event to explore new markets, expand their networks, and discover innovative solutions.
